Awards Sponsorship

In addition to exhibiting at the Annual Aerosol Science Conference, we are also offering the chance to fully sponsor or contribute towards 2 awards to recognise outstanding junior researcher contributions. These will be presented by yourselves at the conference close and photographs and a short summary will be posted on the event webpage and also used for Aerosol Society marketing purposes. Additional benefits:

- Identified as an award sponsor with your company logo on the programme, mailshots, e-newsletter and all event promotional material.
- One complimentary delegate pass to the AASC to include lunch, refreshments and access to all sessions.
- Framed prize certificates including your company logo & officially thanked as the sponsor during the President of the Society's closing address.
- Your company logo on the Aerosol Society website with a link to your company website.
- Opportunity to provide unlimited promotional material/company literature for distribution within the delegate conference bags.
- The Aerosol Society will administer the cash awards on your behalf.
